CLASS HISTORY

The 1950 Prairie Schooner started across the grassy plains and mountains of knowledge and achievement toward the great sea of life with five tiny passengers. They were Albert Ehret, Charles Henning, Perry Olcott, Peter Radlund, and Marian Russell. These five have had the fortitude and perseverance to endure the hardships of the passing years begun under the guidance of their first leader, Miss Gotham. They learned to sit in orderly fashion in a semi-circle while listening to the adventures of Alice and Jerry from Miss Sather who also taught 'riting and 'rithmetic.

With the coming of the Badger Ordnance the number was increased by many new friends from throughout the country. The schooner moved to the high school building for the lack of space, where it rolled along smoothly amid the genial good humor of Miss Mulchaey.

They reached the foothills of the Rockies with Miss Roser. Many of their commanders were lost among Prairie Indian raids during the seige of the Powder Plant.

They hit the trail up the junior high mountains with Miss Schmidt, passing their leisure time with a checkers tournament. The first eighth grade graduation exercises were inaugurated under Mrs. Kuhnau, nee Miss Gruber, and the new principal, Mr. Koten.

The band of passengers increased to fifty-five as they started refreshed and invigorated for the home stretch. They started as green freshies and weathered the storm of initiation to become full-fledged students of Prairie High.

In their sophomore year they put their noses to the grind-stone and enjoyed fully the pleasures and activities of school.

In the junior year their horizon broadened and they took hold of the reins as upper-classmen with Mr. Boll, the present principal. A class play, "Here Come the Brides" under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Ness was successfully presented. Several outstanding athletes represented the class. The Junior Prom was undertaken with the help of their advisors. The gym was transformed into a lovely harbor scene at night. The theme was "Silver Sails in the Moonlight". The President and King, Albert Fuchs, chose Joan Doescher as his queen.

The dawn of their senior year found the passengers of the schooner eagerly awaiting the pleasures of the final lap toward their goal. Their efforts for Homecoming were well rewarded by a victory over Spring Green, followed by a very successful dance. Arvin Steckelberg and Jo Ann Luher reigned as king and queen. The days following were crowded with activities. Among them they had the Senior Class Play, "Everything Happens to Us" under the able supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Ness. After much discussion they decided to have an informal Senior Dance and decorated the gym to the theme of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles". Roger Shanks and Cynthia Turkelson reigned as king and queen.

From then on it was down the trail toward the harbor of graduation, into the sea of life. The Prairie Schooner had reached its destination.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1950

It is now two o'clock in the afternoon and I am still reading this morning's mail. In looking through this bunch of letters, sorting out the ones which concern my Chicago advertising business, (particularly the sale of senior cards) I find several from my former classmates of 1950.

Here is a letter postmarked South America. I never thought anyone of my classmates would get that far from home. It's from Perry Olcott. He says he is as happy-go-lucky as ever and is getting a good salary. He just finished construction of an additional set of locks on the Panama Canal.

Expenses must be high because Charles sent only a postcard. It says, "Tune in at 9:00 over WIBU daily. Hear the 'Dusty Valley Boys', Charles Henning and Gordon Jesse accompanied by 'Tex' Lapke and his guitar."

This letter postmarked New York is from Beverly Bartnich, the famous Powers' model. She has her wish for she is now a "cover girl". She also mentions that Doris Wells, who moved to Japan last fall, has a prominent government position in Tokyo.

There ought to be a letter from Billy Kirchstein of Beverly Hills. He is the romantic idol and "Romeo" of Hollywood.

It's a long time since Patty Schroeder has written. She writes that Colleen Barkley and she are very successful on Broadway. They are a well known song and dance team and are really going places these days.

A very dignified letter came from President Milton Trautmann of the University of Wisconsin. More circulars--it's about time he realized I wasn't planning on attending school, not at my age. The University basketball team is holding number one spot in the Big 11 with Joe Ryan as head coach and Bob Parchem as assistant.

One letter came on which I had to pay some postage. Gloria Conley always would try to get out of anything she could. Allied occupied Germany certainly agrees with her and that WAC uniform is mighty pretty.

Guess who was just appointed the new Secretary of Agriculture? It is none other than Albert Fuchs. I wonder if he is anything like he was when he was still in high school? He says he sees Marian Russell occasionally. She is a court reporter in the Supreme Court in Washington D. C.

Frank Wittwer is just what I expected, the head of General Motors. He has two very able assistants, James Delaney, an outstanding automobile salesman, and Fred Richolson, mechanic. His private secretary is Marian Randall.

Here is a letter from Joan Doescher. She is head dress buyer for an exclusive Fifth Avenue shop.

Well, well! A telegram from Bill Miller! He always did believe in getting through life easy. For a month he has been married to one of New York's wealthiest socialites. 'Easy-going Bill', that's what we called him, and see where it got him!

Bernadine Dobratz and Mildred Walch couldn't leave the territory around Prairie. Bernadine is living at home and is now a well known author of children's books. Mildred and her husband are owners and operators of a swank motel overlooking the scenic Wisconsin River, where they have entertained guests from all parts of the world.

Our state's 4-H leader just came back from Washington D. C. She's Dorothy Steuber.

Clair Rischmueller and Vernie Parchem are both in the Army. Clair is stationed somewhere overseas but Vernie is in Texas where he is particularly interested in the Southern belles.

Here's a letter containing a cartoon of Billy Jo, famous comic strip drawn by Roger Shanks, former study hall artist.

This letter is from Weaver, Iowa. Nancy Rothacker writes that it is her first year of teaching in the sixth grade. She wonders if she acted like that when she was in school. I wonder if she did?

Professor George Martin has sent me word that he has established a college for Merrimac's less fortunate farmers. Robert Morrow and Bob Rabyor are learning to raise the necessities of life, namely: one cow, one pig and eight chickens.

We have another surprise for you. Guess who's the coach of the College of Merrimac basketball squad? That's right, the former all star of Prairie High, Bob Savoy.

They have a new star in the "Skating Varieties", Arlene Sprecher. She's now appearing at Madison Square Garden for a two week's engagement.

You may remember the Boston Bank holdup back in '50. Well, it took a number of years to clear that up and none other than Peter Radlund, our lawyer-detective, solved the case.

Wayne Fingerhuth and Donald Koepp are married farmers. Because of the past prosperous years. Wayne's farm now consists of almost all of Black Hawk. I hear Donald has a television set. Too bad he doesn't have a family yet to enjoy it.

Looks like more work for Cynthia Turkelson and Romelda Richards for they have gone all out for interior decorating, in their own homes, of course.

Raydean Knuth decided not to leave this neck of the woods. He is milk collector for this area. La Von Peetz and her husband live in a rustic cottage in Baxter's Hollow. Melvin Richolson has had considerable trouble with his cattle lately but Lenard Litscher, our veterinarian, is always on the job.

Norma Buchanan is one of the best stenographers the Lodi Lumber Company has ever had. Phyllis Knox is a typist for a La Crosse Garage.

Arvin Steckelberg and Albert Ehret are somewhere in Europe. Albert is an engineer for a dam being built under the Recovery Plan. Arvin has expanded his business so he now has three outdoor drive-in-theaters one of which is in Paris.

Verne Kinschi, who recently bought a large area of ex-Badger Ordnance land to add to his farm, is now the largest patron of Oscar Mayer's.

Lo Ann Luher has an excellent position as accountant for Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company in Madison.

Now I think I will pick these letters up and tie them with a gray and red ribbon because they were our class colors. I'll pack them in the old trunk upstairs.

Oh! Here is one under this chair. I would find it after I had the others all tied together! It's from Eugene Mowitz. Whenever anyone would ask him what he was going to be, he always said, "A bum!" I guess he had us all fooled, for he is a very well known artist exhibiting his paintings with the Gimble Art Collection.

Well, there the trunk lid goes down to store away the memories of my former classmates of 1950.

CLASS WILL OF '50

We, the class of 1950 do hereby bequeath on this night of MAY 23, to the designated members of the Senior Class of 1951, the following traits or characteristics, herein specified:

AS A BODY, we generously leave our memories of P. d. S. High and the right to be "Big Wheels".

NEIL ALWIN leaves to Priscilla Padrutt his oratorical ability.

COLLEEN BARKLEY is more than glad to leave to Carol Mae Meng the ability of forging her excuses.

'BEV' BARTNICK passes on to Maisel Quade her "nights at home".

NORMA BUCHANNAN is our class "actress". She is leaving her dramatic ability to Jean Strangetalien.

In Social Problems, Gloria Conley is a sensation. To Bill Frosch she leaves her ability of thinking up original answers.

"The Sleeper", better known as Jim Delaney would like to leave to Kenyon Giese his chief acquirement---"snoozing" in Study Hall and Classes.

BERNADINE DOBRATZ hopefully wills to Joan Boehmer her quiet and unassuming ways.

We hope Mr. Martens will be happy to hear that Joan Doescher is willing her musical talents to Peggy Denton.

ALBERT EHRET wills his quiet sense of humor to Douglas Hamilton.

Our one and only, Wayne Fingerhuth, leaves his long existing ability to crack corny jokes to Oma Leppla.

ALBERT FUCHS leaves his 'charm' to any needy Junior boy.

CHARLES 'SAGEBRUSH' HENNING leaves his Western drawl to Betty Albertus.

GORDON JESSE very generously leaves his agricultural ability to Maurice Couson, even though he may need it after graduation.

BILLY KIRCHSTEIN is the ladies' man. He leaves his 'way with women' to Wesley Bastian.

PHYLLIS KNOX, despite her need of it, willed to Neva Sprecher her long, black hair.

Another liberal soul, Raydean Knuth is leaving to Pearl Zastrow a lock of red hair.

DONALD KOEPP thinks Don Schwarz might be in need of the right to love a Sophomore.

LOWELL "TEX" LIPKE leaves his guitar to trombone player, Donna Boehmer.

maybe you haven't noticed, but Lenard Litscher is leaving his 'come hither' look to Eunice Meyer.

JO ANN LUHER leaves a portion of her femininity to Donna Fae Giese.

GEORGE MARTINS is leaving his "length" to Le Roy Kirschstein.

Another one and only is Bill Miller. Bill is leaving his seat in English class to Audrey Zick.

BOB MORROW AND VERNE KINDSCHI leave their deck of cards to Mrs. Ness.

Prairie's star basketball player, Eugene Mowitz, is leaving his high scoring to Phil Sprecher.

PERRY CICCOTT wills to Judy Williams the right to "love 'em and leave 'em."

Just a statement from Bob Parchem. "All I got is Donna and I can't part with her."

Vernie Parchem leaves his flaring temper to Orville Walsch.
 La Von Peetz wills her culinary arts to Elizabeth Schlapbach.
 Bob Rabyor has a peculiar will. He's leaving to Barbara Schultz the distinction of getting kicked out of class.
 Pete Radlund leaves his walking shoes to Dale Strmiska.
 Marian Randall leaves her 'appeal to the males' to Marianna Matou-shek.
 Romelda Richards wills the right to wear a diamond to any Junior girl that wishes to.
 Melvin Richolson bequeathes his big brown eyes to Wally Konkell.
 Fred Richolson wills to John Lohr his Chevy pick-up truck.
 To Robert Knox is willed the right to drive to Baraboo in big Buicks, by none other than Clair Rischmueller.
 Nancy Rothacker leaves her mathematical mind to Dorothy Petzke.
 Marian Russell wills to Sylvia Thibert the ability to argue.
 Joe Ryan wills his physique to Orlin Ott.
 Bob Savoy leaves his consuming interest in sports to Martha Gieck Delores Von Buhren and Arletta Garske.
 Pat Schroeder leaves the ability to throw jolly parties to Marlys Taylor.
 Roger Shanks, class president wills to Jack Eckstein, his skill of whiffing Havanas.
 Arlene Sprecher leaves her flirtatious eyes to LaVonne Enge.
 To needy Fuzz Osterfund, Arvin 'Buzz' Steckelberg leaves his curls.
 Dorothy Steuber is known to be a good bowler. She leaves this renown to Bette Mueller.
 Milton Trautmann wants to keep it in the family so to Phil, his younger brother, he wills the ability to ask intriguing questions.
 Cynthia Turkelson leaves her many "nights out" to Ruth Pfohl.
 To lucky La Verne Bittner, Mildred Walch has willed her jitterbug fame.
 Frank Wittwer leaves his well-developed beard to Lowell Coulson.
 Being of sane and sound mind, we solemnly bequeath the above name attributes to said beneficiaries in hope that they will follow in our footsteps.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class of the Prairie du Sac High School has one more step to go before graduation.

There were fifty-two students when school started this year.

Election of officers began the school year: Dale Strmiska - President, Jeanette Saxer - Vice President, Oma Leppla - Secretary, Jack Eckstein - Treasurer.

The class is well represented in band, chorus, forensics, sports and various other activities.

The main event of the year was the Junior Prom, the theme of which was "Candyland".

It has been a successful year under the able assistance of Mrs. Garms and Mr. Martens.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

After working all morning, the floats were finally completed for the parade at 2:30 p.m. The F. H. A. float won first prize, being decorated with the slogan, "We'll Iron Out Spring Green."

A bonfire was held on the high school athletic field at 6:30. The fire was lit, the band played, and the cheer leaders led the group in several yells and the school song.

The Homecoming game was a complete success by defeating Spring Green 19-0. It was the first league win for the local squad and Spring Green's second defeat in conference play.

The dance was held at the high school auditorium from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. with Dan Garson's orchestra furnishing the music. The gym was gayly decorated for the occasion. The Grand March started at 11:00 p.m. with Queen Joan Luher and King Arvin Steckelberg leading the procession. There was a large crowd and everyone enjoyed the dance.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The 1949-50 Prairie du Sac Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America opened the year with election of these officers: Beverly Bartnick - President, Arlene Sprecher - Vice President, Nita Yanke - Treasurer, Ruth Pfohl - Secretary, Ruby Sprecher - Parliamentarian, Monnie Koepp - Historian, LaVonne Enge - Reporter, Mrs. Garms - Advisor.

This year's F. H. A. have achieved many goals. Our initiation took place on November 17. The Chapter selected Mrs. Ryland Block as Chapter Mother. The F. H. A. attended the F. H. A. Rally at Hillsboro where the Chapter learned more about the new activities and purposes. This year the F. H. A. has started a F. H. A. Bulletin Board. The girls Participated in demonstrations. They also earned degrees of achievement.

The F. H. A. meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month. Each girl is required to take part in the F. H. A. ceremony and the business meeting.
